In the digital camera, which component ensures that these settings will result in a properly exposed image? In manual mode, readings of the light meter can be a negative or positive value. A negative value on lightindicates what kind of exposure for a photo (on a Nikon camera)? Digital cameras often have an automatic white balance setting. What is the color temperature range for the AWB setting for most photo conditions? What kind of setting of the digital camera lens uses for a long focal length to your subject? The lens has different focal lengths. What is the name of the zoom lens when it keeps the focus with a change of focal length? Now we need to focus the camera. What method of focusing is the best for static subjects such as dead nature and landscapes, but tends to fail in moving subjects? Traditional categories within the arts include literature (including poetry, drama, story, and so on), the visual arts (painting, drawing, sculpture, etc.), the graphic arts (painting, drawing, design, and other ... For example, a slow shutter speed of 1/2 means the shutter remains open for half a second, while a faster speed of 1/2000 means it only remains open for one-two-thousandth of a second. Many DSLR cameras can go as fast as 1/8000 and as slow as 30" (if shooting in Bulb mode, the shutter remains open for as long as the shutter release is held). This course involves reading learning content and undertaking a range of written assessments and engaging in online forums and discussions. Furthermore, the delivery mode relies on the extensive use of written communication. As such, entry to the course requires the successful completion of English to Year 12 level. Test Your Knowledge! Are You Ready For Manual Mode? If you've read the posts about understanding shutter speed, aperture, ISO and the exposure triangle, you should have a solid foundation for your photography. We've designed a quick quiz with 12 questions that will bring everything together and make sure you are ready to move onwards. 52021/11/ - The training is done in 4 parts with quiz questions at the end of each part. There are a total of 23 questions, I believe you can attempt each question as many times as you need to get it right and at the end you are presented with your certificate so you can print it out and keep it in your drone bag. I took the training and quiz from uavcoach ...
